MISSOULA--

Ernest L. Boyer, U.S. Commissioner of Education, has invited Robert Kiley, Dean of the School of Fine Arts at the University of Montana, to participate in the Arts in Education Forum. Kiley will represent the International Council of Fine Arts Deans on the Forum.

The Forum, a group of key individuals and organizations concerned with education, the arts and arts education, will meet twice during the next year to share views and perspectives. The first meeting will be in Washington D.C. September 20-21. The date of the second meeting will be set later but is expected to be in January 1979.
